environMENTAL campaign

Global Inheritance
FEED YOURS
educate in schools

Every school will have the opportunity to have their own ROOTS compost bin and to join the band and originally designed by Freddi C, Jeremiah Garcia and Siador. Schools will be judged on the number of schools that have a ROOTS compost bin and the number of schools that have a ROOTS band.

Global Inheritance & the ROOTS present FEED YOUR ROOTS, a campaign to educate & integrate composting
in schools across the USA.

Every school will have the opportunity to win their own ROOTS compost bin that's autographed by the band and originally designed by Ryan Riss, Freddi C, Jeremiah Garcia, Carlos Batts or Erik Siador. Schools will be judged on their creativity in designing the school composting program and developing poster art about composting to generate awareness among students. Winning schools will be announced on May 22, 2007.
