

THE ROOTS
4TH ANNUAL JAM SESSION

PARTY GREEN!

Once again, the Roots Jam Session was the place to be in Los Angeles the night before the 2007 Grammys, bringing together the best in entertainment for an impromptu musical jam with Grammy award winners. The Roots, as back-up. This year's jam consisted of performances by Queen Latifah, Dave Chappelle, Fall Out Boy, and Anita Baker with India.Arie and Matisyahu. The annual jam is produced by Tina Farris of GoodTimeGirl and Kevin Seldon of Keldof 360 (www.keldof.com). This year's green theme, used to launch the national Feed Your Roots environmental campaign, included green carpet arrivals and drinks (compliments of Tanqueray) served in biodegradable cups, all used to educate and integrate composting in schools across the nation (www.globalinheritance.org/feedyourroots).
